MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Congressional Measures for a Joint Committee on Intelligence

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. On Friday, 9 January 1959, five more measures calling for a Joint Committee on Intelligence were introduced in the Congress. Two of these were submitted by Congressman Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wis.). As in the case of the five measures introduced on 7 January, all were referred to the Committee on Rules.

a. Hiestand, Edgar W. (R., Calif.): H. R. 380.
Joint Committee on Foreign Intelligence. This is the first time he has introduced a Joint Committee bill.

b. Church, Marguerite S. (R., Ill.): H. R. 738.
Joint Committee on Foreign Intelligence. She introduced similar measures in the 84th and 85th Congresses.

c. Bentley, Alvin M. (R., Mich.): H. R. 1226.
Joint Committee on Foreign Intelligence. Mr. Bentley introduced similar measures in the 85th Congress.

d. Zablocki, Clement J. (D., Wis.): H. J. Res. 31 and H. Con. Res. 11.
Joint Committee on Central Intelligence. Mr. Zablocki has previously introduced similar measures in the 83rd, 84th and 85th Congresses.

3. We are obtaining these bills. Any variations from previous similar measures will be brought to your attention.
